System Requirements For Fenix Epguides Manager:

Compatibility Notes: The spacebar is in the "non-working" position. In gameplay mode, while on map, the spacebar should be used to act as a pause command, instead of the default pressing the spacebar during gameplay, the game should pause after the default spacebar, it will then pause to allow the player to act on the pause command. The pause command is a toggle, meaning a single spacebar action will pause the game and a double spacebar action will resume gameplay. Toggling the pause command is bound to
